UNDER LUMBER PILE.

Body of Man Said to Be Arthur Trudeau Found in Worcester.

Worcester, Mass., Feb. 24.—The body of a man said to be Arthur Trudeau of 532 Park avenue, this city, was found under a pile of lumber near the Jackson street railroad crossing yesterday. It is thought by the police that he fell from the lumber pile as he slept. Their belief is based on the fact that the man's overcoat and hat were found on the pile just above where the body was discovered.

The body was found by Edward Cross, a trainman on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. He notified the police and the body was removed to the City hospital morgue, after being viewed by Assistant Medical Examiner Hunt. At the time of the finding of the body there were no marks of identification upon it, but inquiries throughout the city resulted in the identity of the body as that of Trudeau, who was missing from home yesterday.

AUTO DRIVER FAINTED
AND WAS THROWN OUT

His Wife Grasped the Wheel and Made Too Short a Turn, Machine Being Tipped Over Embankment.

Boston, Feb. 24.—Seized with heart failure just as the automobile he was driving was passing over the Wellington bridge of the Mystic river, Temple F.
Craig of Wakefield yesterday afternoon let go the wheel of the car and was tossed into the icy water when his wife in the seat beside him took hold of the wheel, turned too short a corner at the end of the bridge and tipped the auto over a 12-foot embankment.

Craig, unconscious from the heart attack, was thrown into water over his head. Mrs. Craig and Miss Nellie W.
Wilkins of Everett, a passenger, fell into about five feet of water, and were so overcome they could do nothing to save the man from drowning.

Only the immediate action of the young son of the bridge tender and of a passing autoist in pulling Mr. Craig out of the water saved his life. In the machine of the rescuer he was rushed to the Somerville hospital on Crocker street and brought to.

The accident occurred shortly before 2 o'clock, when the Craigs and Miss Wilkins were bound toward Boston to see friends. Everything went well until they were half way across the Wellington bridge that spans the Mystic river between Somerville and the Falls.

As soon as Mrs. Craig saw her husband's fingers begin to slip from the wheel and saw the car start to wobble she reached over, grasped the steering apparatus and guided the car over the rest of the bridge.

At the driveway beyond she tried to turn the car off to the right and to bring it to a stop. Handicapped by her position to one side of the wheel, she made too short a turn.

The car fell into the water right side up, but all three were thrown out. Mr.
Craig was thrown the farthest and fell into six feet of water. Mrs. Craig and Miss Wilkins were plunged into the water about up to their necks. Both went under at first, however.

From his home at 2 Middlesex street, adjoining the boulevard, 19-year-old Andrew Leahy, son of Thomas Leahy, the drawbridge of the bridge, saw the accident. He rushed to the rescue and got Mr. Craig's head above water. He had not the strength to pull him out alone.
The women scrambled up to the seat of the auto in the water.

George W. Brennan of 409 Franklin street, Melrose Highlands, was passing in his car and went to Leahy's aid and together the two were able to pull Craig out. Then they rescued the two women and took them into the Leahy home.

Mr. Craig was put into Brennan's auto and the mile-and-a-half trip to the Somerville hospital was made in record time.
There Craig was brought to by Dr. H. F.
Curtis. Mrs. Craig and Miss Wilkins were given dry clothing at the Leahy home and were able to go home. Mr.
Craig was forced to stay at the hospital until he had fully recovered.

YOUNG WOMAN A SUICIDE.

Attended Dance Saturday Night and Went Home and Took Gas.

West Concord, N. H., Feb. 24.—Maia Wolkia, aged 21 years, a Finnish girl, committed suicide some time late Saturday night or Sunday morning by gas.
She was employed as a domestic at the home of Walter Darrah of 42 Perley street and her dead body was found by Mr. Darrah Sunday morning. The medical examiner was summoned, and he pronounced the case one of suicide.
Previously Sergeant Wallace and Officer Sibley had viewed the body.

The story of the tragic death of the Wolkia girl, recounted in chronological order, shows that she went to a Finnish dance Saturday night and returned to her home about 11:30 o'clock. It has been learned that there was some sort of a disturbance at this dance. The girl went with a local young man, but he stated that there was no trouble of any kind between them.

She went to her room in the Darrah house, then went down to the kitchen, where she turned on all the gas jets in the gas cooking stove, as well as those on the lighting fixtures. She then lay down on the floor in the position in which she was later found.

Mr. Darrah was awakened by the smelling of gas, and on opening the kitchen he found the girl dead. A note found in the girl's room, addressed to another Finn woman in this town, stated that "no one was to blame but herself," that no one cared for her and she didn't care for anybody, and in general it appeared to be a case of disappointment with life.

his back. The foot of the bed was also scorched. Mrs. Patnaude had presence of mind to use a rug to extinguish the blaze before the fire department arrived. Mr. Patnaude spent a comfortable night Saturday and yesterday. He is about 60 years of age and has been confined to his home on West street for several months.

WILSON SIGNED "IT'S TOO BAD."

When Informed of the Killing of Madero and Suarez.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 24.—President-elect Wilson was shocked to hear the news that Madero and Suarez had been killed in Mexico City.

"It's too bad," he sighed, when he first learned of the shooting through Associated Press dispatches. He refrained from comment, saying he would maintain his policy of silence until he had taken office.

While nothing has come from Mr. Wilson to indicate what his attitude will be, he has kept himself consistently informed of developments by a careful scrutiny of the news dispatches. He has talked the situation over informally with the correspondents, displaying at all times a keen interest in the progress of events in the trouble-ridden country.

Mr. Wilson it is known had hoped from the first that Mexico's problems would find amicable settlement without the least interference from the United States. He realizes the gravity of developments, however, and is studying the situation most earnestly.

Essex Junction, Feb. 24.—The death of Stephen A. Thompson, aged 65, occurred early Sunday morning of heart failure.
He retired in his usual health and seemed in excellent spirits. At about

HAS DOUBLE BEREAVEMENT.

Manchester, N. H., Woman Called to South Royalton on Sad Mission.

Manchester, N. H., Feb. 24.—The many friends of Mrs. John Dolloff of 1490 Elm street, will be pained to learn that she has been called to South Royalton, Vt., to attend the funerals of two sisters, who died within three days of each other.

One of the sisters, Mrs. Alice Furman of New York City came to New Hampshire, a short time ago in search of her health, and was apparently gaining rapidly, so much so that it was possible for her to take the extended trip into Vermont. Shortly after she arrived there, however, a change of the worse developed and death overtook her on Feb.
14.

The other sister, Miss Alma French of Royalton, Vt., had been in poor health for a long time, and it was on account of this that the elder sister made the extra effort of getting to her bedside.
She died on Feb. 17.

Mrs. Dolloff will go to New York for young son, the possessor of the weapon, playfully shot at his mother's head.

The bullet penetrated the skin just behind the ear and striking a bone glanced downward and lodged in the cords of

A TASTE OF WINTER.

Afforded Yesterday When Blizzard Came
Out of the West.

The weather man delivered his first bona fide consignment of winter early Sunday morning, when a four-inch carpet of snow came down within the space of a few hours. The storm came on the heels of Saturday's spring-like weather and served for a time at least to revive the waning hopes of lumber men and others who are relying on runners to do their winter's teaming. A short recess of clear atmosphere gave way to a small blizzard later in the forenoon and it was nearly twilight when the sun made its second appearance. The snow fell on icy sidewalks and during the greater part of the day pedestrianism was a precarious undertaking and a number of falls of a more or less serious nature are reported. Snow concealed the icy spots and it was hardly an infrequent spectacle to see an unwary traveler floundering to regain his equilibrium, only to fall and take the count.

Thus far the only accident that called for the services of a physician occurred on Highland avenue, where Sylvester H.
Barnes, a resident at No. 15 on the avenue, slipped and fell as he was going from his home to the sidewalk. He managed to crawl into the house, where a physician was summoned. The latter was unable to ascertain whether any bones had been broken, although Mr.
Barnes complained of pains in his side and it was thought that a rib or rib-buds had been fractured. To-day Mr.
Barnes was resting comfortably, although he still suffered from the effects of the fall. He will be confined to the house for several days.

Teamsters and farmers appeared on the streets to-day with sleds and it seemed to be the general opinion of all that a few weeks' sleighing would be in order now. Not too much reliance, however, is placed on the snow prophets for the weatherwise figure that the sun is warm enough to reduce almost any fall of snow within a few days.

MOVING OFFICIAL VERMONT.

Four Tons of Office Supplies Taken from Montpelier to Essex Junction.

Essex Junction, Feb. 24.—Secretary of State Guy W. Bailey and office force returned Saturday from Montpelier after the close of the legislature. A special busily engaged the greater part of Saturday in hauling these effects to the secretary's office.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hutchinson of East Hill Given Genuine Surprise.

A genuine old-fashioned surprise party was perpetrated on Mr. and Mrs. E. K.
Hutchinson of east hill Saturday evening when about 75 of their friends and neighbors took possession of their home to remind them that it was their 15th wedding anniversary. After the first shock of surprised amazement had passed, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson responded nobly to the occasion and made the invaders welcome.

The evening was a very enjoyable one for all, with music and games for entertainment. E. S. Kent and Miss Hazel Hack of the Cobble hill school sang two duets in their usual pleasant manner.
Refreshments were served, after which, in behalf of the company present and other friends, F. C. Bancroft presented the host and hostess a handsome library table, two rockers and a sum of money as slight tokens of remembrance and as an apology for the unceremonious visit.
Mr. Hutchinson replied feelingly and expressed much gratitude and pleasure for the interest his friends had shown.
The success of the undertaking was due to the effort of Mr. and Mrs. E. E.
Perry and Mrs. E. E. Owen.
